Bloom & Grow: Community Roots Garden Kickoff Week 2PM-5PM

Join us for four days of creativity, learning, and community fun as we celebrate spring together. The week includes a Book & Activity with Darlene Smith from Imagination Library, a Grow Your Money session presented by Brooke Wells of Knoxville TVA Employees Credit Union, Creative Garden Day with hands-on crafts, Growing a Community presented by Myra Miller of the Hamblen County Health Department, and a Main Kickoff Celebration featuring a Plant Your Hopes Station, community planting moment, craft displays, pollinator corner, and refreshments. All ages are welcome as we plant seeds and grow community together.

What Home Means to Me - Poster Contest Workshop 3PM

We're excited to host a creative workshop for the "What Home Means to Me" poster contest! Kids are invited to come explore their ideas, express what home means to them, and turn those thoughts into colorful artwork.

Art supplies and guidance will be provided—just bring your imagination and creativity! We can't wait to see the unique and beautiful posters our young artists create.
